

STAMFORD INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

FINAL INTERNSHIP FORM - STUDENT SELF- APPRAISAL FORM

Advertising and Public Relations Major

Introduction and purpose

First of all, we would like to congratulate you for having completed the last part of your degree: your internship. We hope you have not only put into practice what you learned at Stamford International University, but also enjoyed and created life time memories that will, certainly, help you in your future career. The purpose of this form is to learn a bit more about what you think of your internship and help you analyze the last three months of your degree with us.

We would love to take this opportunity to wish you all the best in your future endeavors. We will always be here in case you need anything and it would be great if you could share your life experiences with us from time to time.

General instructions

Please answer all the questions of this form in an accurate and honest way. Please remember that this is not graded but taken into account to know more about our student body and to be able to improve our internship department, in particular, and the university, in general.

We encourage you to give detailed answers so we can completely understand your experience.

All the information provided in this form is confidential and will not be disclosed with third parties. Thus, please do not worry about giving honest answers.
